THE PATH OF BRIGANTS

The brigandage, at the end of the Kingdom of Naples, was a social phenomenon, which is still little known and that had great sympathy among the populations of southern Italy.

On these historical traces, since the time of the ancient Romans, we will discover together places, stories and characters of that time always immersed in the richness of the local gastronomy, the uncontaminated nature and the sympathy of the Samnite people.

- A tour of a Real Conte's Palace with the noble himself
- A walk on the brigant's wood
- Little bourgue that looks like a crib
- A tour of the famous italian liquor "Strega" and visit at Bell Foundery

You can book at the sales agencies that you find on our website. _____ www.hitaly.top
